

An aerial photograph showing the extensive ruins of Hohenstaufen Castle. The castle, built on a rocky hill, features several large stone structures, including a massive keep and various towers and walls. The surrounding landscape is dense with green trees and fields, with a winding river visible at the bottom of the valley. The sky is clear and blue.

DIE HAHNENBACHTALTOUR

Hans Melchior Tschirnhaus